AT THE "SOO" JUNCTION.

The Pathetic Lament of a Father Whose Son Ran Away From Home.

The time was a cold October afternoon.

The place was a station waiting room in North Idaho.

The people of the drama were an old lumberman in "store clothes" and a young man whose apparel proclaimed the city.

And then there was a rough pine box, about six feet long, on a truck outside. Perhaps that might have been called "the properties."

There is no more desolate place than the South St. Marie junction, at it was raining that afternoon. There is a dirty little station and the train dispatcher's house on the side of the track. Opposite is a deserted log cabin. There is nothing else to be seen. In summer the commonest flower-scented spot. The old man with the cane on his hat sat looking out at the box on the truck. The young came, either traveler or advance agent, or whatever he was, stared vacantly at his companion. The time passed slowly and drearily. Once a freight train rattled by. The young man got all the enjoyment he could out of that and carefully viewed the clothes fading away into the fog.

At length, as if compelled to speak, the old man said: "Say, I hate to see the rain fall on that 'box' coffin so. They oughter made the casket this year a station bigger. I tried to bring him in, but that truck's too wide. Jim was a fine boy, he was, afore he went up to Marquette. That's him out there. It wasn't unnatural for him to want to go. There ain't nothin to keep a bright boy at home in a town what's got nothin in it but my old sawmill an' the store. But, O Lord, I wish he'd a staid—I wish he'd a staid! A country boy ain't got no show in one of them tough iron towns. I ain't a-blaamin Jim for leavin' me. But he was all I had. He didn't know how much I wanted him to stay or he'd a done it. He didn't have no sort of ruin. His mother died when he was just a little feller.

"When he growed up, nothin' 'ud do but he must go away. He goes up to Marquette an' gets him a good job on the docks, bein' strong an' handy. He uster write me the finest letters you ever seen every Sunday reg'lar. He was up there forty-four months when he quit writin'. I stood it a month, an' then I went up. He was sick in a meanly boardin' house. He was consider'ble sick, but we fetched him through, an' I took him home. He got good an' well again. He said he'd stay with me 'till home. But he didn't. He runned off one night. I didn't care for what he took, it he'd only a com' back. He kep' a-writin' for money to come home on, an' I kep' a-sendin' it, but I had to go for my boy. He was shot through the heart in a saloon at the Soo. That's him out there. I ain't a-blaamin him. I didn't raise him as I"

Then a whistle was heard. It was the awaited train. With careful hands, two fathers, the train dispatcher and the young man wheeled the coffin to the baggage car. Gently the burden was lifted within. The old man climbed in to be by his dead. The door was shut, and in a moment the train was lost in the barred pine barrens.—Harper's Weekly.

The Future of Greece.

It is impossible to have intercourse with modern Greeks without being touched with some degree of the enthusiasm which inspires them in discussing the future of their country, or without sharing the confidence with which they approach it. It may be true that the people are of hybrid race, that little of the old Hellenic blood flows in their veins, but few European nations of note, our own perhaps least of all, can boast unmixed descent. There is that in the air this people breathe, the language they speak, the land they live in, which is of the very spirit of liberty.

One needing a countryman on the road accosts him as "patriote," a term of more significance, of larger meaning than "citizen." But they are a people deeply democratic and require gentle handling to stir liberty clear of the shoals of license. Murmurs against the growth of taxation are already heard, and the extraordinary activity of the press, the publicity of every unpopular act of the administration.—Blackwood's Magazine.

Astrology of the Day.

Astrology seems to be gaining in popularity, and many are turning to it for pointers concerning the fate that is in store for them. Meteorologists are consulting the planets in relation to changes in the weather, and scientists are seriously discussing the probability, or even possibility, of the larger planets exerting an influence on the earth sufficient to affect conditions of life or health.

Astronomers do not believe in astrology, but are willing to give the unique science credit for assisting to develop the science of astronomy. Long before there was an interest in the heavens there were many careful observers of the heavenly bodies. The names chosen by these men for stars and constellations remain unchanged.—Chicago Record.

The Date For the Millennium.

Charles T. Russell of Allegheny, Pa., announces that the millennium will surely arrive in October of 1914. We are now in the "lapping time" between the day of the gospel and the grass of the millennium era. This "lapping time" began in October of 1874 and will last 40 years. During this period the kingdoms of the world will be overthrown by the anarchists, nihilists, socialists and nationalists. At the same time the Hebrews will all be gathered in Palestine.—Chicago Herald.

The Shamrock.

Those who believe that one of the 10 lost tribes of Israel settled in Ireland lay stress on the fact that "shamrock" is the Arabic word for trefail, which, under the name of shamrock, has been made the national bloom of Ireland.—Philadelphia Ledger.

HALE METHOD OF PAINLESS FILLING.

NEW DEPARTURE IN DENTISTRY!

DR. PORTER HAS RETURNED for the purpose of advertising the

"Hale Method of Painless Filling."

Absolutely painless without Chloroform, Ether, Gas or Cocaine.

OFFICE IN SUNDERLAND'S BUILDING, - - - VIRGINIA ST., RENO

Here are a Few Testimonials from Citizens Who have Already Tried the Method:

Dr. Porter—DEAR SIR:—It affords me pleasure to say that the Hale method of painless filling opens a new era in the dental world. After having several very sensitive cavities filled by you with gold and amalgam with gratifying results, I am of the opinion that the method is far beyond competition.

PATRICK HENRY.

Dr. Porter—DEAR SIR:—In answer to your request for my candid opinion as to the Hale method of painless filling, I beg to state that I went to one of Dr. Leek's finest operators in San Francisco, and he filled several teeth for me with more or less pain; but when he came to the one you have just filled, it was simply impossible for me to endure the torture, consequently I asked him to stop, which he did. I thought I would be obliged to have the tooth extracted. I wish to state that in five minutes after you commenced to operate there was positively no pain; it felt just as if you were cutting a piece of wood. I am so highly pleased with the manner in which you filled the tooth that I feel it but just to express my appreciation of the method. It is all you claim for it.

CHARLES HOPE.

Dr. Porter—DEAR SIR:—I have had teeth extracted before by so-called painless methods, but you are the only operator who has extracted teeth for me without pain. Your method of extracting surpasses my most sanguine expectations.

MRS. H. PRENTISS.

Dr. Porter—DEAR SIR:—It gives me great pleasure to state that I am thoroughly convinced of the excellence of your method. I expected to suffer dreadfully having the cavity filled, as it was the worst one I had to have done. In about five minutes after you began to work on it I was satisfied that I could not hurt, which it did not during the entire operation. The tooth you extracted is one I have been dreading for eight years, and after consulting dentists in Sacramento, who advised me not to have it removed, as the ordeal might prove injurious to my health and also disfigure my face. You extracted the tooth without a particle of pain, and I will have no further dread of the dental chair, providing I can obtain the Hale Method.

MARY E. FLECKENSTEIN.

Dr. Porter—DEAR SIR:—After using Hale's Painless Method as administered by you in the extraction of teeth, I can bear testimony that the results are satisfactory, and that teeth can be extracted painless by said method.

HENRY J. NEYLAND.

Dr. Porter—DEAR SIR:—I believe that the Hale Painless Method of filling is destined to lead the world in its special field of usefulness. I am particularly impressed with it, owing to the fact that one does not lose consciousness while having teeth filled, and at the same time does not suffer a particle of pain. You are at liberty to refer any one who contemplates having sensitive teeth filled to me.

The Silver State notes the arrival at Winnemucca of fifteen tons of ore from the Gold Note mine in Kennedy district, worth about $200 per ton. The ore is to be shipped to Portland, Oregon, though it would seem that money could be made by its owners by sending it to the Reno Reduction Works.
A remarkable dust explosion occurred in a flour mill at Litchfield, Illinois. The great mill, said to have been the largest in the world, was blown to pieces as if by dynamite. Bricks, timbers and pieces of machinery flew in all directions. The spectators were thrown to the ground by the shock, and people a mile distant were prostrated. Towns sixty miles away telegraphed that they had experienced the effects of the explosion.

A COMPANY FOR SELLING MINES.

It Will Assist Miners and Prospectors to Dispose of Their Properties.
A company has been incorporated in San Francisco to handle mining properties. The incorporators are men of standing in the community and of practical experience in mining affairs. The Mining and Scientific Press says the main feature of the organization is that which provides for assisting miners and prospectors to dispose of properties without their being overloaded by middle men, and mines will be advertised for sale just as real estate is offered. The policy is this, when a man comes in and reports a mine to be worth $40,000 and wishes to list the same with the company, it will send one of its experts out to verify his statement. If verified the company will offer his mine for sale at his own figure and charge him a commission for selling. This enables the buyer to get a mine at bedrock figures, and the seller at the same time gets his price less the commission, of course, which will be agreed upon.
Several attempts have been made at various times to establish mining bureaus, mining agencies, etc., for the sale of mines, but none have been successful either because the originators were irresponsible and took any property that came along, or because they were mere middle-men working under a company's name. They have not guaranteed the statements made by the would-be sellers or taken steps to verify reports. As we understand it, this new organization will first satisfy itself, through its experts, of the value of the property and then offer it for sale. It is only intended to handle legitimate mining properties which have some prospective merit.
Another feature will be furnishing information to non-residents concerning properties in which they are interested. That is, they will obtain information in regard to mines and impart this on receipt of a fee. It will have nothing to do with mining stocks one way or another, legitimate mining being its only sphere. From its articles of incorporation the company itself is prohibited from purchasing as a corporation any mining property which is offered to it for sale. This is a provision which no similar organization has had, and it is an important one, confining the company to its legitimate organization has had, and it is an important one, confining the company to its legitimate functions as an agent.
The incorporators of the new company are: Irwin C. Stamp, Irving M. Scott, J. H. Neff, W. F. Goud, R. C. Chambers, P. N. Lillenthal and D. M. Burns. The secretary of the company is to be Wm. C. Kallston. Offices are to be taken in the Mills building and the company will shortly be ready for business.

RAILROAD CASUALTIES.
Figures Furnished by the Railway Surgeons.
The national convention of railway surgeons met at Omaha last week. C. W. Brock, chief surgeon of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad read the annual address. He congratulated the association on its prosperous condition and quoted from the report of the railway commission to show the increase in number of railway employees and safety appliances, and then said:
"Of employees there were killed during the year ending June 30, 1891, 2,660, and the number injured was 26,140. The number of passengers killed was 233, and the number injured was 2,972, and those classified as other persons being the total number killed up to 7,929, and the total injured to 33,851, making a grand total of killed and injured of 40,910."
Commissioners' Proceedings.
The board of county commissioners met yesterday, all the members, County Clerk Evans and District Attorney Carlier being present.
The chairman was empowered to order a carload of lumber for town and county purposes.
The chief of police submitted his monthly report, in which it was shown that the sum of $533 was collected by him for city licenses and $84 for dog licenses.
An order was made that all county advertising be equally divided between the Wadsworth Dispatch, Evening Gazette and Journal, and that bids be received for doing job work for the county.
A number of bills were allowed, a list of which will be published to-morrow.
A New Tricycle.
Marcus Fredrick has received through Wilson & Lewers, agents, a pneumatic tire Kenwood tricycle. It is a handsome machine, weighing fifty pounds, and it cost $185. It is almost as easily propelled as a safety bicycle. As Mr. Fredrick has the use of but one leg, Messrs. Wilson & Lewers will attach a lever on the left pedal bar, arranging the machine so that it can be worked with the right foot and left arm. Marcus is justly proud of his new machine, as are also the agents, Messrs. Wilson & Lewers. It is probably the finest tricycle ever brought to the state.
The Columbian edition of the San Francisco Examiner issued last Sunday, mention of which was made in the Associated Press dispatches, is the largest newspaper ever printed. It contains 120 pages of interesting as well as instructive matter, many of the articles having been written by prominent men on special subjects which they are supposed to thoroughly understand. It is a wonderful newspaper production and if printed in ordinary book form would make a large volume.

THE CHINESE TROUBLE IN HUMBOLDT.

The Killing in American Canyon the Work of a Highbinder.
The Silver State of last Saturday has the following relative to the Chinese trouble in American canyon:
"Deputy Sheriff Anderson returned yesterday from American canyon, where he went to investigate the trouble among the Chinese over a placer claim, which resulted in the killing of one of the Hong Gee party last Tuesday. The murderer is a Chinaman named Lee Yek, who acknowledged that he did the killing and gave himself up to Constable Cozzens of Lovelock. He is now in jail at Lovelock awaiting preliminary examination.
"Facts are hard to get, but from the best information obtainable it would seem that Lee Yek is a highbinder in the employ of the Lee Ing outfit, as he says he, promised him a share of the claim if he would help them get possession of it. He seems to have confidence that they will get him out of the scrape, but in the meantime two of the three leaders of the Lee Ing party have suspiciously disappeared. Lee Yek also claims that the shooting was done in self defense. He evidently has very little regard for the truth, as the murdered man was shot twice in the back.
"The strangest part of the whole business is the verdict of the jury at the inquest, which was held by Justice Fellows of Unionville. It found that the deceased came to his death by an unknown hand, notwithstanding Lee Yek admitted the killing. The whole affair is so mixed up that it would be to the county's interest if the law could be suspended and the Chinese allowed to fight it out among themselves."

BREVITIES.

The Denver News says the efforts of the stalwart Democrats of Kansas to control the federal patronage of the State has proved a miserable failure, President Cleveland having notified them that he would appoint no man to office in Kansas without the indorsement of the fusion senator, John Martin.
Articles for a finish fight to take place in Reno on July 3d have been signed by George McKenzie of Australia and Sam Barber of Los Angeles, and are both expected here this morning to go into training. They are to fight at 136 pounds, weights to be taken at 12 o'clock on the day of the fight. Should either one at that time weigh over those figures he will forfeit $50.
Some time ago H. H. Beck assayed several samples of ore from mines in North Horse district, six miles west of Wadsworth, which were very rich in gold, and he then gave it as his opinion that there was gold enough in Wadsworth county to pay the national debt. Late reports from the new mines indicate that his opinion was well founded. John Hayes, who is interested in the mines, received a quantity of the ore in which gold is visible to the naked eye, and he has left for the mine to see whether or not he is a millionaire.
The Eureka Sentinel says Joseph Dejon, a native of France, aged about 67 years, committed suicide last Tuesday by shooting himself in the abdomen with a gun loaded with buckshot while lying in bed, pulling the trigger with his toe; cause, ill health and despondency over mining disappointments. He had rich relatives, his daughter being the wife of a rich banker. Pride restrained him from making his condition known. He resided in Eureka over twenty years and was highly respected in the community.

A True Goldfish Story.

At the New York hospital they relate a curious occurrence bearing on the hibernation of fishes. In the conservatory in the upper part of the building they had several glass jars in which were goldfish, which is a species of carp. One morning the caretaker found a jar broken and the water frozen through and through, the fish of course being as rigid as ice. The lump was taken away and thrown into an old rubbish barrel, where it remained several weeks.
On March day the sun was unusually strong, and it split the cylinder of ice, but what was the astonishment of the caretaker to see the tail of a fish wriggling out of a part of the broken block. The actual freezing had not killed the fish, which was removed to another tank, where it swims about as if nothing had befallen it.—Our Animal Friends.

Demoralizing the Busy Bee.

As the magpie is notorious for stealing glittering objects, so we find the parallel among savages who have been known to help themselves on shipboard to all the movables, being fascinated by mirrors, cutlery and jewelry. Sometimes bees, in order to save trouble, attack in crowds well furnished hives and carry off the provisions; they gradually acquire a taste for this and form companies and colonies of brigands. If bees are given a mixture of honey and brandy, they can acquire a taste for it and become irritable under its influence, drink and cease to work, and like men fall from one vice into another.—Current Literature.

The Small "Life" of a Great Man.

The New York state library has in its possession one of the smallest books in existence. It contains 14 pages, each of which measures 1 1/2 inches. On the flyleaf are the words: "Life and Services of General Pierce. Respectfully dedicated to General Lewis Cass. Concord Press, 1853." From its text it would seem that the little book was a vest pocket campaign document, issued during the Pierce campaign.—St. Louis Republic.

LAW THAT IS QUEER.

A Decision Which Practically Makes a Nephew a Plume Common Property.

A very interesting claim, in which every author who uses a signature is more or less concerned, was indignantly dismissed by Judge Lacombe in the United States circuit court. As I understand it, a mediocre book was published in this city purporting to have been written by Alan Dale, the nom de plume of one of the brightest and cleverest of New York's younger literary men. As a matter of fact, Mr. Cohen (Alan Dale) did not write the book, and when he heard of its publication protested against the use of his name. Protest being unavailing, through his counsel, Mr. Stockley, he sued the publisher, claiming $1,000 damages. After hearing Mr. Cohen's testimony, Judge Lacombe virtually informed the jury that there was no necessity of further evidence, as it could not be shown that the plaintiff's salary on a daily paper in this city had been decreased by reason of the publication, or that he had had any subsequent trouble with publishers.

That may be law; it's not justice.

Mr. Cohen could have proved by George Alfred Townsend, A. C. Wheeler, Samuel L. Clemens and other writers of national repute that the signatures over which they are known to the world of readers—Gath, Nym Crinkle, Mark Twain—mean a fortune, and that any use of those signatures by other parties was not only an abuse but a traverse of equity, dishonest and cruel. I can understand Lacombe's action in the matter. It virtually says to irresponsible publishers: "Go ahead, publish what you please, lyingly announce that the matter is written by any author whose name you may prefer. He has no remedy unless he can prove that he has lost an engagement or is in disfavor with the publisher."

I wonder how Lacombe would like to see decisions, purporting to have been rendered by him, signed with his name, circulated in the community. And I also wonder whether it ever entered his somewhat interesting mind that it is advisable to mulct thieves, liars and bearers of false witness, for the protection of the community in general and of men as well to whom reputation is worth much more money than the circuit court could possibly collect.—Joseph Howard in New York Recorder.

Churches as Places of Refuge in War.

Our ancestors transacted a good deal of business of one kind or another in and about their churches. To begin with, the churches of old England in turbulent times were regarded as places of safe custody for public and private property. In the border land of England and Scotland the idea was carried out still more completely, and churches, or at least their towers, became regular fortresses and not infrequently were objects of offense and defense. We may note in rural England that in the cases of ancient churches the towers are often not merely disproportionate in size to the rest of the church, but are carefully and strongly built, evidently with an object.

Even in peaceful Surrey and Sussex the belltowers are veritable strong rooms with barred windows and massive doors and often contain a massive treasure chest. Hither, at the first alarm, money and valuables were hurried, for beyond the security of thick walls and bars and bolts there was an agas of sanctity which in a superstitious age protected the building from the most ruthless of foes. The fortresslike construction of many of the border land churches is an interesting study to antiquarians.—London Standard.

A New Type of Girl.

I met a new type of girl the other day, and she was certainly refreshing. Girls are all a good deal alike as a general thing, you know, and one does get so tired of the same old stereotyped girl—sweet enough in her way, I grant you, but with an eternal sameness that grows rather irksome.

She is a little witch to begin with. She will steal a man's heart before he knows it, and then pretend not to know it herself. This dangle is most attractive to men, for, spite of her originality, she is adaptable personified. She seems to be able to converse intelligently with all sorts of men and gets each fellow's fad at her finger tips too. She knows more than many of her men friends, but she never lets them suspect it. She makes each believe that she learns so much from him and depends so much on him. She is a very feminine, unassuming, natural sort of little woman, with something appealing about her.

But down under it all she is a ruffian. She has made a study of men, and she has profited by that study.—Chicago News-Record.

The Earth Will Fall Out of Balance.

Marshall Wheeler, one of the best known of the great army of Pacific coast scientists, claims to have discovered a "third principal motion of the earth," which is this: Every 20,903 years the globe changes its north and south poles on account of the attraction the earth has for its own magnetism. This sun, too, strongly attracts one of the poles and repels the other. This being the case, it only takes the short space of 20,903 years for the double attraction to green it over to such an extent that it suddenly "flips" 90 degrees. Mr. Wheeler says that one of these grand "flips" occurred 6,000 years ago, at the time set down by the geologists as the "glacial epoch."—St. Louis Republic.

An Easy Way to Keep Insects Off the Trees.

To trap various insects in the open air, half full wide necked bottles with sirup or sweetened water, adding enough arsenic to make the liquid poisonous. After a rainstorm the bottles should be emptied and refilled, as before mentioned. Hang the bottle on the branches of the trees and among the bushes, etc. This is a ready and simple method of trapping all insects that prey on sweets, consequently keeping the trees free from many noxious pests that prey annually on shade and fruit trees.—Cor. Brooklyn Eagle.

"German Syrup"

Here is something from Mr. Frank A. Hale, proprietor of the De Witt House, Lewiston, and the Tontine Hotel, Brunswick, Me. Hotel men meet the world as it comes and goes, and are not slow in sizing people and things up for what they are worth. He says that he has lost a father and several brothers and sisters from Pulmonary Consumption, and is himself frequently troubled with colds, and he Hereditarily often coughs enough to make him sick at Consumption's stomach. Whenever he has taken a cold of this kind he uses Boschee's German Syrup, and it cures him every time. Here is a man who knows the full danger of lung troubles, and would therefore be most particular as to the medicine he used. What is his opinion? Listen! "I use nothing but Boschee's German Syrup, and have advised, I presume, more than a hundred different persons to take it. They agree with me that it is the best cough syrup in the market."

SUMMONS.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF Nevada, in and for Washoe county—
The State of Nevada, vs. George Ferguson, defendant.
You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by O. C. East, detainer, within ten days after the service on you of this summons (exclusive of day of service), if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said district, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to prayer of said complaint. The action is brought to recover the judgment and decree of the court forever questioning the title of the plaintiff in and to the east 1/4 of the S.W. 1/4 and west 1/2 of S.W. 1/4 of sec. 28, in T. 23 N. R. 18 E. M. D. B. M.
The plaintiff claims uninterrupted adverse possession thereof, under claim of right for more than seventeen years, and the title thereto in fee, and the defendant claims an estate or interest therein adverse to the plaintiff; and this action is brought to annul such adverse claim and to quiet plaintiff's title to said lands and premises, and to perpetually enjoin defendant from ever asserting any claim against the title of the plaintiff, and for costs.
All of which will more fully appear from the complaint, which is on file in the office of the clerk of said court, at Reno, in said county, and to which you are especially referred. And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint the said plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded.
In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said court, at Reno, this 24th day of April, A. D. 1900.
CLERK OF THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF Nevada, in and for Washoe county.
By W. L. KNOX, Deputy.
T. V. JULIEN, attorney for plaintiff.
